Veteran trumpeter leads new Canadian Big Band

Band's debut March 27 at The Roxy Theatre

The versatile veteran trumpeter and influential brass music educator had a long association with the Toronto Symphony. He led his own band at the Beverly Hills Hotel, and headed up Humber College's music program for 25 years.

At 82, he still practices three hours a day, performs with a Kincardine brass quintet and directs that community's Lighthouse Swing Band.
